On earth as it is in heaven.
Lord, I think we have plenty of bread —
Help us to share it.
I fear we have more than our share of trespasses —
Please forgive us.
And as tedious as forgiving is —
Help us forgive those who trespass against us.
We can't stand much temptation,
So deliver us from evil.
This is Your world and the power belongs to You.
We give You glory forever. Amen.

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, President Ronald Reagan has been severely wounded in an assassination attempt in the nation's capital; and

WHEREAS, This attack on the President is an attack on the American democratic system and is an act that demands the strongest condemnation; and

WHEREAS, The Texas Legislature wishes to join with other loyal Americans in denouncing the assassination attempt and expressing hope for the President's recovery; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the 67th Texas Legislature meeting in Joint Session of the House of Representatives and the Senate hereby condemn the act of violence against the President of the United States; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That the Texas Legislature hereby extend to President Ronald Reagan a heartfelt wish for a speedy recovery and an early resumption of his duties as leader of this great nation.

HOBBY - President of Senate
CLAYTON - Speaker of House
Members of Senate
Members of House

The resolution was read and adopted by the Members of the Senate and by the Members of the House of Representatives.

Speaker Clayton presented Mrs. Rita Clements and presented a gavel to Governor Clements, asking that it be delivered to The Honorable George Bush.

Speaker Clayton then presented The Honorable William P. Clements, Jr., who reported that Vice-President Bush was returning to Washington and sent his regrets at being unable to attend today's session. Governor Clements reported on the condition of President Reagan and other wounded members of his party.

The Reverend Dr. Browning Ware, First Baptist Church, Austin, offered the following prayer for the recovery of President Reagan and those wounded with him in Washington:

If you desire to honor God and to pray for the health of the President and his associates and for the welfare of our nation, please rise.

"Out of the depths have I cried unto Thee, O Lord. Lord, hear my voice: Let Thine ears be attentive to the voice of my supplications. If Thou, Lord, shouldest mark iniquities, Lord, who shall stand? But there is forgiveness with Thee, that Thou mayest be feared. I wait for the Lord, my soul doth wait. My soul waiteth for the Lord more than they that watch for the morning: I say, more than they that watch for the morning. Let us hope in the Lord: for with the Lord there is mercy, and with Him is plenteous redemption."

We shall wait in silence for a moment as you offer your prayers.

Eternal God, our Father, and Father of all mankind, You have gotten our attention through a tragedy in our nation.

Now we wait for Thee. We ask for Thy healing mercy for our President, Ronald Reagan, and his associates. And we ask now, humbly, for thoughtfulness, for caution, and for daring in ourselves and in those around our President.

Father, we recognize ourselves in the events of this day. We are common of all humanity. Some of us see that we are both shot and shooter, for we know that we are not perfect. We, too, have sinned against Thee. We now humbly ask for Thy mercy upon us, upon our President and our nation and our world — for we do wait on Thee. In Thy Name. Amen.
